2. INTRODUCTION

2.1. The conduct Rules set out below are binding on all Owners and Occupiers who, in turn, are personally responsible and liable for ensuring that members of their families and their tenants, invitees and servants comply with them.

2.2. Happy and satisfying community living is achieved when Owners and Occupiers use an enjoy their Sections and the Common Property in such a manner that they show respect and consideration for the rights of other persons lawfully on the Scheme. Compliance with the Conduct Rules and general consideration by Owners and Occupiers of each person lawfully on the Scheme will greatly assist in achieving a happy community.

2.3. In the event of annoyance, aggravation or complaints occurring between the Owners and/or Occupiers, an attempt should be made by the parties concerned to settle the matter between themselves. This should be done with consideration and tolerance. If, however, such problems cannot be resolved between the parties, then they should be brought to notice of the Trustees in writing. The Trustees may require that a complaint is submitted to them in the form of an affidavit before they consider it.

3. FIRE PROTECTION

3.1. Electricity supply:

3.1.1. Under no circumstances may an Owner and/or Occupier tamper with or have work done on the electrical apparatus that serves the Common Property. Any electrical faults detected on the Common Property must be reported to the Trustees.

3.2. Electrical and Gas Apparatus in Units:

3.2.1. Fans, heaters, stoves, kettles, lights and other household appliances must be checked regularly and maintained by the Owner and/or Occupier and when necessary, be repaired by a registered technician. Appliances should be used under supervision and not left on unnecessarily. After switching off at the sockets, plugs should be pulled out where possible when not in use. All plumbing and electrical work shall only be effected by qualified and where applicable, license or registered workmen.

3.3. Braais:

3.3.1. Braais must always be held with due consideration to neighbours and are prohibited on the Common Property, except where facilities have been provided. Matches and lighters should be handled with care and kept out of reach of children.

11.3. No Owner or Occupier of a section shall be permitted to install burglar proofing to any external doors or windows in the section other than to a design, standard and specification submitted to and approved by the Trustees in writing. The prior written consent of the Trustees shall be obtained prior to the installation of any burglar proofing to any Section. No other fixtures such as solar panels, cabling, awnings, washing lines or antennae's will be affixed to any part of a Section without first having obtained the written approval from the Trustees as to the precise location for the mounting of such item/s.

11.4. The Trustees have the right to have any fixture or fitting that is not installed with the guidelines as set out in this clause 11 removed at the Owners' expense.

12. EXCLUSIVE USE AREAS

12.1. No sheds, Zozo huts, jungle gyms, gazebos, boats, caravans, may be erected or stored on in or in an exclusive use area at any time, except with the written permission of the Trustees.

12.2. Exclusive use areas to be kept in a tidy and in a hygienic condition at all times.

12.3 Residents must not place or do anything on any part of the Common Property, Including patios, balconies and Common Property "Exclusive Use Garden's" which, in the discretion of the Trustee Board, is aesthetically displeasing or undesirable when viewed from the outside of the Section.

12.4 Alterations and Renovations

12.4.1 Any alteration or installation of fixtures to the exterior of a building—

12.4.1. a. Shall not be undertaken by a Resident unless the Trustee Board has granted permission in writing and have first been given full particulars thereof including where necessary, plans approved by the municipality where required in terms of the bylaws, and which trustees have given their permission in writing thereto.

12.4.1.b. Shall be maintained by the Resident. If these are allowed to deteriorate, or deteriorate due to weather, poor materials, poor workmanship or design, then the Resident must maintain or replace, failing which they will be maintained or removed by the Body Corporate at the Resident cost.

12.5 All alterations or improvements must comply with the requirements of the STA and local laws; and match the existing design, structure, and look of the Complex.

12.6 The Body Corporate may request any Official approvals, certified Council drawings, engineering drawings, Certificates of Compliance (Electrical, Gas, Plumbing, etc), or verification from the Fire Chief, where applicable, for the Body Corporate records.

13. ALTERATIONS TO A SECTION

13.1. No Owner may allow any alterations to be carried out to the interior of a Section without adhering to the following procedures:

13.1.1. An Owner or Occupier shall not mark, paint, drive nails or screws or the like into, or otherwise damage, or alter any part of the Common Property without first obtaining the written consent of the Trustees;

13.1.2. The full scope of work is to be set out with timelines from the approved contractor and must be approved in writing by the Trustees;

13.1.3. A deposit is to be paid by the Owner against any damage to Common Property which amount will be determined by the Trustees after reasonable consideration of risk factors involved;

13.1.4. Work may only commence from 08h00 — 16h00 during weekdays, and from 09h00 — 13h00 on a Saturday — no work on Sundays or Public Holidays;

13.1.5. Each worker involved in the construction must comply with the Scheme's security arrangements as may be applicable from time to time;

13.1.6. Damage to Common Property as a result of such alterations will be for the account of the Owner of a Section undertaking such alterations;

13.1.7. Any costs incurred by the Body Corporate in repairing damage to the Common Property caused by an Owner, Occupier or any persons visiting or invited onto the Common Property shall be borne by the Owner who allowed such Occupier or persons visiting or coming onto the Common Property to do so and who shall forthwith make payment of the costs of the repaid demand by the Body Corporate.

13.1.8. No alterations of a structural nature shall be permitted.

14. VEHICLES

14.1. Roller skates, skateboards, roller blades or roller balls and similar devices may not be used on the Common Property.

14.2. Owners or Occupiers shall at all times operate and park vehicles within the boundaries of the Scheme in a quiet, courteous and controlled fashion, in compliance with speed limits imposed by the Trustees and in such a manner as to ensure the minimum of disturbance and/or inconvenience to other Owners and Occupiers.

14.3. No Owner or Occupier shall park or stand any vehicle upon the Common Property or permit or allow any vehicle to be parked or stood upon the Common Property, other than in the designated visitors parking bays, and then only in such manner so as not to obstruct access to the entrance and other visitors parking bays. Damaged vehicles and vehicles that are not in general use, drop oil or brake fluid onto the Common Property, or that are not roadworthy, may not be parked anywhere on the Common Property other than for such short periods as may be approved by the Trustees, and then only with their prior written consent.

14.4. The Trustees may cause the vehicles wheels to be clamped, at the risk and expense of the Owner of the vehicle, any vehicle parked in contravention of 14.1 — 14.3 above or any such vehicle standing or abandoned on the Common Property without the Trustees consent.

14.5. Owners and Occupiers of Sections shall ensure that their vehicles, and the vehicles of their visitors and guests, do not drip oil or brake fluid on to the Common Property or in any other way defaces the Common Property and/or the exclusive use parking bay areas.

14.6. No Owner or Occupier shall be permitted to dismantle or effect major repairs to any vehicle on any portion of the Common Property, an exclusive use area or in a Section.

14.7. No Owner or Occupier shall be permitted to wash or clean any vehicle except in the areas designated or authorised for such purpose by the Trustees from time to time.

14.8. Owners and Occupiers shall ensure that their visitors and guests:

14.8.1. Obey any road signs on the Common Property;

14.8.2. Do not drive their vehicles within the Common Property in any manner which creates a nuisance or is considered by the Trustees not to be in the interests of safety; and 14.8.3. Do not allow any unlicensed person to drive any vehicle on the Common Property.

14.9. Car hooters shall not be sounded other than in emergencies.

14.10. Visitors' parking bays are reserved for the use of visitors only and may not under any circumstances be used by Owners or Occupiers.

14.11. Parking of vehicles upon the Common Property is subject to the express condition that every vehicle is parked at the vehicle owner's risk and responsibility and that no liability shall attach to the Body Corporate or its agents or any of their employees for any loss or damage of whatever nature which the Owner, or any person claiming through or under him, may suffer in consequences of his vehicle having been parked on the Common Property.

14.12. Driving of vehicles upon the Common Property is subject to the express condition that every vehicle is driven at the Owner's risk and responsibility and that no liability shall attach to the Body Corporate or its agents or any of their employees for any loss or damage of whatever nature which the Owner, or any person claiming through or under him, may suffer in consequences of his vehicle having been driven on the Common Property.

14.13. Owners and Occupiers shall be bound by and obligated to observe any security access control measures imposed by the Trustees and/or the Body Corporate from time to time. Should such measures involve the use of access cards, tags and/or codes, Owners and Occupiers shall be obligated to keep such access cards/tags/codes secure and confidential at all times and to thereby ensure the safety of the complex as a whole.

14.14. Owners and Occupiers shall be obliged to use the controlled access to the Common Property in a manner which will not prejudice the safety of other Owners or Occupiers and the flow of traffic to and from the Common Property.

14.15. Owners, Occupiers, their guests or any persons visiting them or delivering to them causing damage to the controlled security gate, its mechanism or intercom or any part of the Common Property shall be obliged to repair same at that Owners' cost.

14.16. Owners and Occupiers shall at all times act in a polite and respectful manner to the gatehouse security guards and shall obey any reasonable instruction by such guards issued in the performance of their duties.

14.17. No vehicle with a capacity of more than three tons per axle (except for emergency vehicles such as the fire brigade) will be allowed in or onto the Scheme as it can damage the paving with its turning and maneuvering.

14.18. MiPad streets are narrow, and vehicles may not be parked in them at any time. It is generally clear which parking areas belong to which sections; any dispute in this regard should be brought to the Trustees in writing and their judgement in such matter shall be binding. There are very few visitors' parking bays, so if significant numbers of visitors are expected, owners or occupiers should advise visitors to park in the public areas outside the complex and walk in. The rules of the Estate forbid parking on public lawns such as the grassed areas directly in front of MiPad or on Fir Boulevard.

14.19. Attention is drawn to Section 6.3 & 14.1 of the rules of the Estate, which apply with special emphasis in MiPad's streets.

14.20. The speed limit in MiPad is 20 km/h but special care and lower speed should be observed on blind corners in the complex.

15. APPEARANCE FROM OUTSIDE & SIGNAGE

15.1. No Owner or Occupier shall place or do anything on any part of his/her Section and/or the Common Property, including balconies, patios, steps, and gardens which, in the discretion of the Trustees, is aesthetically displeasing or undesirable when viewed from the outside of the Section.

15.2. No Owner or Occupier shall place any sign, notice, billboard or advertisement of any kind whatsoever on any part of the Common Property or of a Section, so as to be visible from outside the Section, without the written consent of the Trustees first having been obtained.

15.3. An Owner may display or permit the display of any marketing, "For Sale", "To Let" or "Sold" boards of agents outside the entrance or on the pavements/verges of the Common Property, restricted to a maximum of three such boards, and then only at such positions and on such terms as the Trustees may reasonably prescribe from time to time. This shall not apply to the developer's sale of Sections, and the developer (or its nominated agent) shall be entitled to display such boards until such time as all Sections have been sold.

15.4. The Developer may place large billboards along any boundary of the Scheme without the Body Corporate / Trustees consent until three months after the sale of the last Unit in the Scheme.

15.5. Owners / Occupiers will adhere to all signage on the Common Property including signs which depict direction or place restrictions on use of the Common Property and may not remove any signage so erected.

15.6. The Owner or Occupant of a Unit shall not place in or do anything to the Section which is, in the discretion of the Trustees aesthetically displeasing or undesirable when viewed from the outside of the Section.

16. LITTERING

16.1. An Owner or Occupier shall not deposit, throw, or permit or allow to be deposited or thrown, anywhere on the Common Property any rubbish, including dirt, cigarette butts, food scraps or any other litter whatsoever.

17. LAUNDRY

17.1. An Owner or Occupier shall not, without the consent in writing of the Trustees, erect his own washing lines, nor hang any washing or laundry or any other items on any part of the Section or the Common Property so as to be visible from outside the Section or from any other Sections.

17.2. Clothing may be hung on clothes horses but it is to be stored away as soon as the washing is dry.

17.3. Neither the Body Corporate, the Trustees, or the managing agent shall be liable to any Owner, Occupier or tenant for the theft or loss of any items from the provided washing lines.

18. STORAGE OF INFLAMMABLE MATERIAL AND OTHER DANGEROUS ACTS

18.1. An Owner or Occupier shall not store any inflammable material, or do or permit or allow to be done, any other dangerous act in his/her Section or on the Common Property which will or may jeopardise the safety of the Scheme or its occupants or which will or may increase the rate of the premium payable by the Body Corporate on any insurance policy.

19. OCCUPANCY & LETTING OF UNITS

19.1. The maximum number of occupants of any Section shall be restricted to the number of occupants for which the relevant Section was designed, i.e., 2 persons per double bedroom.

19.2. Owners must provide the Trustees with such detail and information relating to any tenant as the Trustees may reasonably determine and shall complete and submit, prior to any tenant taking occupation of any Section, a duly completed application form to the Trustees or their nominated agent.

19.3. All Occupiers are obliged to comply with these Conduct Rules, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any lease or terms of any grant of right of occupancy, and shall conclude a written agreement with the Body Corporate in terms of which the proposed occupier of the Section acknowledges receipt of and undertakes to adhere to these Conduct Rules and undertakes to ensure that their family, invitees and staff adhere to these Conduct Rules and an Owner shall at all times be jointly and severally personally liable for any transgression by an Occupier of these Conduct Rules. 19.4. No lease of a Unit shall in any way release or absolve the Owner of that Unit from any of his obligations to the Body Corporate in terms of the Management Rules, the Act or these Conduct Rules.

19.5. No Section may be used as a commune.

19.6. An Owner who concludes a lease agreement with an Occupier shall, within 10 days of conclusion thereof, furnish the Body Corporate with contact details of the tenant.

19.7. Owners are encouraged to include the following clause into any lease which they may conclude in respect of a Unit:

19.7.1. "The Tenant acknowledges that the premises leased is a Section in a sectional title scheme in respect of which Conduct Rules, enforced by the Body Corporate of the Scheme, are applicable. The Tenant hereby acknowledges having been provided with a copy of the Conduct Rules and accepts that the Body Corporate is responsible to ensure compliance therewith. The Tenant undertakes to comply with the Conduct Rules from time to time.”

19.8. No Section may be let by any Owner or be sublet by any Occupier for a period of less than 3 months. No "Air B & B" or similar leasing / bed and breakfast / hotel / serviced apartment arrangements or schemes shall be permitted in a Section, save with the prior written consent of the Developer and Trustees.

19.9. In addition to the above, an Owner shall furnish the Trustees with:

19.9.1. full details of the tenant or person who will occupy the Section, including but not limited to copies of identity documents, employment details, contact telephone numbers and email addresses and any other documentation which the Trustees may deem relevant or necessary.

20. RADIO AND NOISE LEVELS

20.1. Radios, hi-fi's, tape recorders, television sets and musical instruments shall not be used in such a way as to cause unreasonable disturbances or annoyance to any Owner or Occupier and shall be kept to a minimum level.

20.2. The noise level of parties and gatherings must not cause any disturbance to any of the Owners/Occupiers and if any complaint is received, the level of noise must be reduced to an acceptable level.

20.3. Tolerable noise would be allowed from Sunday to Thursday until 22h00, Friday and Saturday until 24h00. Any noisy activity, including but without limitation thereto lawn mowing, may only be performed between the hours of 08h00 — 16h00 Monday to Friday and 09h00 — 16h00 on a Saturday and Sunday provided no unreasonable noise is made.

20.4. Electric lawn mowers are preferred. It therefore follows that there are quiet hours from 22h00 to 08h00 on weekdays and all evenings before a weekday; and from midnight on Friday and Saturday evening to 09h00 on Saturday and Sunday morning. It is recorded, expressly, that Owners and residents have made a conscious choice to live in a communal environment and consideration must be given to their neighbours.

21. ERADICATION OF PESTS

21.1. An Owner shall keep his Section free of all damage-causing insects and, to this end, shall permit the Trustees, the managing agent, and their duly authorised agents or employees, to enter upon his Section, with notice provided to the owner, from time to time for the purpose of inspecting the Section and taking such action as may be reasonably necessary to eradicate any such pests. The costs of the inspection, eradicating any such pests as may be found within the Section, replacement of any woodwork or other material forming part of such Section which may be damaged by any such pests shall be borne by the Owner of the Section concerned.

22. COMMUNAL FACILITIES

22.1. Communal facilities (including the swimming pool and activity centre) situated on the Common Property are for the use of Owners and Occupiers of Units. Provided they are accompanied by an Owner or Occupier, such facilities may be used by visitors or guests of any Owner or Occupier, provided such visitors or guests comply with these Conduct Rules and any other rules which may be put in place by the Trustees from time to time with regard to the use and enjoyment of the aforesaid communal facilities.

22.2. Owners and Occupiers of Units shall be responsible for the behaviour of any visitors or guests using such communal facilities. Only so many guests or visitors, so as not to prejudice the use and enjoyment of other Owners or Occupiers wishing to use the aforesaid facilities, shall be permitted. The Trustees reserve the right to restrict the use, by guests or visitors of the communal facilities including the right to place limitations on the times at which such facilities may be so used.

22.3. Use of the communal facilities for functions, meetings and similar activities shall be pre-arranged with the Body Corporate. The Body Corporate shall be entitled to impose limitations on such use including times and frequency and may impose any other reasonable terms and conditions pertaining to such use as the Body Corporate may deem necessary in the circumstances.

23. PAYMENT OF LEVIES

23.1. A statement of account, in respect of the monthly levy and all amenities including, but not limited to water, electricity and special levies, shall be communicated to each Owner on or before the last day of each month.

23.2. Each such account shall be due and payable on the first calendar day of the next month. In the event that the first calendar day falls on a weekend or a public holiday, the account shall be due and payable on the next working day of that next month.

23.3. Owners or Occupiers are required to pay their monthly levies timeously, failing which interest (which rate shall vary from time to time), shall be charged for the full month.

23.4. Should the monthly levy not be paid by the 7th of the month, a friendly reminder will be sent to the Owner, if the levy is not paid by the 14th of the month, a letter of demand will be sent to the Owner, if by the end of the month in which the levy is due the amount has still not been paid, the managing agent will be instructed to institute legal proceedings. The owner shall be liable for all collection and legal costs associated with the collection of arrear levies in accordance with Regulation 25 of the Act as agreed or granted by the appropriate court.

23.5. The Trustees may impose a reasonable penalty system for accounts over 30 days in arrears.

23.6. All Owners of Units and other persons granted rights of occupancy by an Owner of the relevant Unit are obliged to comply with these Conduct Rules, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in any lease or any grant or rights of occupancy.

23.7. The levies shall include the Owner's pro-rata share of the costs associated with the management, control and upkeep of the communal facilities in rule 22.

23.8 No Resident shall be entitled for any reason whatsoever to withhold any monies to the Body Corporate.

23.9 A Resident shall be liable for and must pay the body corporate all reasonable costs and disbursements, as taxed or agreed by the member, incurred by the body corporate in the collection of arrear contributions or any other arrear amounts due and owing by such member to the body corporate, or in enforcing compliance with these rules, the conduct rules or the Act.

24. FINANCIAL APPLICATION OF FUNDS AVAILABLE IN THE BUDGET

24.1. The Trustees shall apply the funds in accordance with an approved budget, e.g., Roof maintenance budget may not be used for gardening purposes etc.

24.2. Should the Trustees find that the budget is insufficient to cover a specific maintenance requirement; a general meeting of Owners will be called in order to adjust or amend the said budget by means of a year-to-date management account, three quotations to support the cost and a new projected expense. The Body Corporate will maintain the soft jointing in any walkways, waterproofing, paint, driveways, plumbing and any plumbing ducts situated on the Common Property on a bi-annual and annual basis and Owners will pay any special levy associated with regard the maintenance from time to time.

25. CONTRAVENTION OF LAWS AND RULES

25.1. As a result of a breach by an Owner of these Conduct Rules or any other obligations(s) to the Body Corporate, the Body Corporate or its elected Trustees may instruct an attorney to initiate court proceedings against the defaulting Owner. The owner shall be liable for all collection and legal costs associated with the collection of arrear levies in accordance with Regulation 25 of the Act as agreed or granted by the appropriate court.

25.2. Owners and Occupiers shall not contravene or permit the contravention of any law, by-law, ordinance, proclamation, statutory regulation or the conditions of any license relating to or affecting the occupation of the Scheme or the carrying on of business in the Scheme or the conditions of title applicable to their Unit or any other Unit.

25.3. The Trustees of the Body Corporate shall be enjoined to apply these Conduct Rules consistently and dispassionately. However, the Trustees may exercise their collective discretion in applying these Conduct Rules, if it would be reasonable, fair and just to do so.

26. NO LIABILITY

26.1 The Resident of a section, their family, employees, guests and service providers shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Body Corporate, from any and all claims, demands, suits, actions, proceedings, loss, cost and damages of every kind and description; including any reasonable attorneys' fees and / or litigation expenses caused by, arising out of, or contributed to in whole or in part, by reasons of any act. The Body Corporate shall under no circumstances be held liable unless found to be grossly negligent.

26.2 The Body Corporate and Security shall not be liable or responsible for:

- 26.2.1 for any loss from damage done to any property related to theft or any other criminal activity;
- 26.2.2 for any theft or damage to Vehicles or theft from Vehicles on the premises;
- 26.2.3 for the receipt or non-receipt and delivery or non-delivery of goods, postal matter or any other property;
- 26.2.4 for the insurance of the contents of any Section, which is the sole responsibility of the Resident.

27. ZONING

27.1. Owners and Occupiers shall comply with the provisions of the town planning scheme relating to the Land and shall not use their Units or the Common Property in contravention of the aforesaid zoning.

28. FINES

28.1. Owners acknowledge that the Body Corporate shall be entitled to impose fines on the relevant Owner should either that Owner or any Occupier occupying through that Owner breach these Conduct Rules.

28.2. Owners and Occupiers hereby acknowledge that the Body Corporate shall be entitled to impose a fine in respect of any breach, whether by an Owner or Occupier, of these Conduct Rules. The Trustees shall, in the event of an Owner or Occupier being in breach of these Conduct Rules, notify the Owner, with a copy to the Occupier in the event that the person occupying is not the Owner, in writing, providing details of the rule breached and demanding that the Owner or Occupier stop such breach immediately.

28.3. In the event that the Owner fails to desist from the breach of the rule complained of in 28.2, the Trustees shall be entitled to address or send a letter to the Owner or Occupier concerned. Should the breach persist, the Trustees may impose the fines as authorised in 28.1. the Trustees shall notify the Owner that a fine has been imposed and give reasons for their decision.

28.4. The Owner shall be entitled, within 7 days from receipt of the notice in 28.4 to make written representations to and give motivation to the Trustees as to why the fine should not be imposed.

28.5. The Trustees shall consider any written motivation in 28.4 and may thereafter either confirm imposition of the fine, reduce the fine or elect not to fine the Owner, provided the Trustees shall communicate their decision to the Owner within 14 days of their receipt of the Owner's representations in 28.5.

28.6. The decision of the Trustees in 28.5 shall binding provided that an Owner or Occupier shall be entitled to dispute such decision with the Community Scheme's Ombud or any other appropriate dispute resolution forum.

28.7. Any penalty imposed as provided for in 28.1 and 28.2, the body corporate may debit such penalty to the owners monthly levy statement, which the owner consents to, payable by the owner on presentation of the statement.

28.8. Accordingly, the members of the Body Corporate may, in a general meeting from time to time, determine the quantum of any fines as may be imposed by the Trustees in terms of these rules.

29. DRONES

29.1. The Developer shall be entitled, for marketing and related purposes only and without reference to the Body Corporate, to fly drones over the Common Property provided the Developer's right to do so shall terminate 6 months after the Developer ceases to be a member of the Body Corporate.

29.2. No person may, in or about the Common Property, pilot a remotely piloted aircraft i.e., an unmanned aircraft which is piloted from a remote pilot station, including any model aircraft or toy aircraft or any drone type apparatus, save with the prior and express written consent of the Body Corporate, who may grant such consent in circumstances where the use of the aforesaid remotely piloted aircraft or drone is necessary for commercially related purposes.

30. PRE-PAID ELECTRICITY

30.1. It is recorded that the supply of electricity to the Units is on a pre-paid meter basis and managed in accordance with an agreement concluded from time to time by the Body Corporate and a third-party service provider. A copy of the relevant agreement shall be made available by the Body Corporate to its members or to Occupiers on written request.

30.2. Owners undertake not to tamper with any electricity metering systems and to comply with and abide by the terms and conditions of any such agreement from time to time.
